Dedication

NILA DEGNAR

With grateful appreciation for the hours of service given to each student of B. C. A. . .

To one who has won the admiration and deep regard of the student association. . .

To one who offers friendly counsel for our problems with an understanding smile. . .

To you, Miss Nila Degnar, we, the staff of the 1961 Bacre Vie, dedicate this annual.

Principal's Message

FREEDOM

Freedom is the key word around the world today. Millions are receiving their first days of this much-desired way of life. To the dismay of many, however, the ugly head of confusion and anarchy have followed in not a few of these countries.

Christian students have a freedom equaled by no other group, but we must use it wisely lest we too fall into error. "Forward in Christ" is our watchword as the wonderful events pointing to the return of our Saviour are echoed through our halls. Freedom, as enjoyed at Battle Creek Academy, when tempered by respect for each other and the desire to gain knowledge and wisdom, will lead to a life of success today and in the future.

This yearbook is a record of Christian victories for each student and teacher alike. As we look back from time to time, may we gain new vision of freedom's frontier, both here and wherever our various pathways may lead.

Dear Judy,

Well all remember this year for a long time, I know. I'll remember you also. All the times we went around hitting each other will be remembered by us and by our classmates and teachers. They'll always think of us as those two immature, silly, typm boyish, jerks called Judy + "Punk." I will sincerly attempt in the future to abstain from slugging you at will & hope to see you next year here at good old B.C.A. + also wish you all the luck and good Times in the world for the future. Behave yourself and may God bless you and be with you. In conclusion I do hereby inscribe my grimy fingerprint on your clean (?) page just in case you ever lose track of me.

With much love
Mary Eileen Moore

next I think you're
Love ya
Judy

Good luck and best wishes
